Mapping the Future of Undergraduate Career Education

Equitable Career Learning, Development, and Preparation in the New World of Work

Edited by Melanie V. Buford, University of Minnesota, USA,
Michael J. Sharp, University of Cincinnati, USA and Michael
J. Stebleton, University of Minnesota, USA

This timely book explores current trends and future possibilities for undergraduate career education, the nature of the changing workplace, and its impact on students in colleges and universities. Reckoning with the effects of COVID-19 on the world of career development, this book draws on contributions from leading scholars, entrepreneurs, and practitioners from across the fields of education, business, STEM, and the humanities to offer an inclusive and innovation-focused approach to supporting scholars, practitioners, and students involved with career education, development, and counseling for a new generation—and a new world of work.
